Selling Points

Eve Weather – Connected Weather Station (Matter)

- Track your local outdoor temperature, humidity and barometric pressure over time, and see the weather trend at a glance.
- Ask your voice assistant for the temperature and humidity level right on your doorstep.
- Gain insights and view your data by day, month, or year in the Eve app for iPhone and iPad.
- Matter-enabled to connect it to additional platforms letting the whole family access your home easily and securely – no matter if they use an iPhone, Android device or call upon Alexa, Siri or Google Assistant.
- Sleek & sophisticated design and IPX4 water resistance; completely wireless with a replaceable battery.
- Get up and running in a flash with quick & easy set up and no need for a bridge or gateway.
- Benefit from a more responsive and reliable smart home thanks to Thread technology – all you need is a compatible hub.
- 100% Privacy: No Eve cloud, no registration, no tracking. Local intelligence and direct communication without bridge or cloud dependency.
